

Stamford Fire Department

201 E McHarg

Stamford, Texas 79553

Subject: Introduction

Revised 10/20/03, 2/2//04, 11/14/08

-Rules and Regulations

Stamford Fire Department
Rules and Regulations

Introduction

These rules and regulations are supplemental to the policies and procedures instituted by the City of Stamford. These policies provide for those circumstances that maybe unique to the Stamford Fire Department.

Applicability – These rules and regulations shall apply to all personnel. Failure to comply with these rules and regulations will be cause for disciplinary action.

Modification – Any of the rules and regulations set forth in this section may be modified. All fire department personnel will be apprized of any such changes of the Fire Department rules and regulations.

Authorities and Responsibility – The administration may change or amend these rules and regulations, when necessary in order to more effectively and efficiently promote the interest of the city and/or the Fire dept and it's members/employees. The Fire Chief is authorized and directed to develop and implement necessary procedures and regulations for the efficient administration of these policies. The Fire Chief or his designee is responsible for enforcing these rules and regulations.

Dissemination – Each Fire Dept. member/employee will be given a complete set of these rules and regulations additionally, a copy will be located in the Fire Chief's office. And posted on the Fire Department website. These rules and regulations will be a part of city policy, as will any amendments/additions that might follow.

Adoption – These rules and regulations are effective upon reception by the member/employee.

Notes: None of these rules and regulations are intended to create a contract or entitlement to membership/employment. The provisions contained in previous rules and regulations are hereby revoked and shall be replaced by these rules and regulations.